

Broughton Milton Keynes

At Broughton in Milton Keynes we are encouraging homeowners to recycle rainwater and reduce water consumption. Here homes have been provided with water butts allowing water to be used for external irrigation and communal areas. Internally, the homes have been fitted with tap flow regulators, showers have a flow rate of less than 9 litres per minute and standard baths have an overflow maximum of 200 litres.

Case Study

Bellway