

Northumberland Park

We have provided 530 new homes at Northumberland Park in North Tyneside. The new homeowners now have the opportunity to make regular use of public transport via the new Metro railway station that has been added to the existing network. Financial support from Bellway contributed to the provision of the station which is a key element of the local regeneration strategy providing access to points throughout Tyneside.