

Redhill Reptile Translocation Programme

Park 25, is a significant development in Redhill Surrey. The scheme involved a major conservation programme prior to development. Working with ecologists, a three acre wildlife area was created to protect the population of Grass Snakes, Common Lizards, Bats, Stag-Beetles, Newts, Toads, Frogs and nesting birds.