

Willow Court, Chelmsford

Willow Court in Chelmsford is a new suburban community. A key element of residential satisfaction was the inclusion of a well-maintained communal garden. Architecturally the design provides clear identity providing the feel of a typical Essex village. “The green space at Willow Court is an integral part of the layout ensuring that both public and private space positively impacts on all aspects of the development” – CABE